PhotoVoice

Show how you see integration through photos!

- Are you from Prague?
- Do you like taking photos?
- Do you want to share your point of view and maybe even change something?

Then you are the perfect candidate for PhotoVoice!

We are looking for Czechs and foreigners living in Prague, who would like to share their ideas, opinions, and experience with integration through photos.

We are not looking for professional photographers nor integration experts – all we want is your personal ideas and experience.

Would you like to take part?
